

Privacy Statement

Fitness Professionals Ireland (FPI) Website

This statement relates to the organisations website (www.fitnessprofessionalsireland.ie). Within the domain of FPI you may find websites over which the NCEF has no editorial responsibility or control. Such sites can include the websites of other organisations etc. While FPI encourages compliance with this web privacy statement at such sites, please consult the privacy statement of individual sites or contact the persons responsible for those sites, in order to understand the policies and practices under which they operate.

General statement

FPI fully respects your right to privacy and actively seeks to preserve the privacy rights of those who share information with the FPI organisation. FPI will not collect any personal information about you on this website without your permission save in cases where FPI is required by law to do so. (E.g. the investigation of a criminal offence or a breach of the organisations programmes policies, procedures or guidelines). Any personal information which you volunteer to FPI will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1988 and Data Protection (Amendment) Act 2003.

Collection and use of personal information

FPI does not collect any personal data about you on this website, apart from information which you volunteer (for example by e-mailing the FPI organisation or using our online services). Any information, which you provide in this way (name, address, e-mail, phone number), is used by FPI only in line with the purpose for which you provided it. All of this information helps us better serve our members and improve our services.